Benchmark reference answer

Question	I am 10 years old. Do I need ID to vote?
Essential The very minimum an answer needs to include. Comprises: ● Any accurate answer to what the user asked for. ● What the user needs to know in order to avoid being misled.	● 10 year olds cannot vote
Good answer If the bare essentials aren't enough to meet an "average" user's needs. Comprises: ● Information that further answers the user's question, but that goes beyond what is strictly "essential" This section is optional and is unnecessary for basic questions.	For those who are old enough to vote, voter ID is needed for certain UK elections. You must be 18 and have a photo ID in order to vote in all elections in England and Northern Ireland, and in Police and Crime Commissioner elections in Wales. You must be 18 and have a photo ID to vote in UK parliamentary elections in England, Wales, Scotland and NI. You can vote in local council elections and elections to the Scottish and Welsh parliaments at age 16, and do not need ID to vote in these types of elections.
Background Core facts relevant to the question — use as a reference guide for annotators.	The UK government is legislating to lower the voting age for all reserved UK elections to 16 (UK parliamentary, England local, PCC in England and Wales, Northern Ireland elections). Provides a full list of elections in which voter ID is needed Provides examples of what ID is accepted