Benchmark reference answer

Question	I am 25 years old. Do I need ID to vote?
Essential The very minimum an answer needs to include. Comprises: ● Any accurate answer to what the user asked for. ● What the user needs to know in order to avoid being misled.	- Maybe. You need ID to vote in most but not all UK elections, depending on your location and the type of election. - You need ID to vote in all UK parliamentary elections, including by-elections and recall petitions, regardless of which UK nation you're in. You need ID to vote in all elections in England and Northern Ireland, and in Police and Crime Commissioner elections in Wales.
Good answer If the bare essentials aren't enough to meet an "average" user's needs. Comprises: ● Information that further answers the user's question, but that goes beyond what is strictly "essential" This section is optional and is unnecessary for basic questions.	- Directs users to gov.uk, electoral commission or local authorities to check which election type and rules for their area - Specifies certain types of photo ID would be needed
Background Core facts relevant to the question — use as a reference guide for annotators.	List of accepted voter ID types and info on voter authority certificates List of associated voter ID rules (e.g. expired allowed, original document, one needs to be shown)