Benchmark reference answer

Question	What voter ID is accepted?
Essential The very minimum an answer needs to include. Comprises: • Any accurate answer to what the user asked for. • What the user needs to know in order to avoid being misled.	- Voter ID must be photo ID (as of August 2026) - The ID must be an original document (expired is fine provided there's a photo likeness), with a name that matches that on the electoral register England, Wales and Scotland list: - UK passport (or a passport issued by Channel Islands, Isle of Man, British Overseas Territories) - EEA passports or passport cards - Passports or passport cards from a country whose citizens are Commonwealth citizens - UK driving licence (or one issued by the Channel Islands, Isle of Man, EEA states, and can be provisional) - Blue Badge for parking - Local travel passes: (UK Govt Older Person's Bus Pass, UK Govt Disabled Person's Bus Pass, TFL 60+ London Oyster photocard, freedom pass, Scottish local authority National Entitlement Cards, 60 and Over Welsh Concessionary Travel Card, Disabled Person's Welsh Concessionary Travel card) - Voter authority certificates are available for those in GB for those who do not have any of the accepted photo IDs. Northern Ireland: - UK, Ireland or EEA driving licence (full or provisional) - UK, Ireland or EU passport (includes Irish passport cards, but EU passports are not accepted at UK Parliament elections) - Translink SmartPass (Half fare, senior, 60+, War Disablement or Registered Blind) - Biometric Immigration Document - Electoral Identity Card Accept the full list, or examples if they're caveated as such and the LLM directs users to a site where they can find out more - e.g. it says 'it includes driving licences, but see gov.uk or electoral commission for full list' - Two digital types currently accepted - Veterans' card and e visa
Good answer If the bare essentials aren't enough to meet an "average" user's needs. Comprises: • Information that further answers the user's question, but that goes beyond what is strictly "essential" This section is optional and is unnecessary for basic questions.	- Anonymous electors must apply for an Anonymous Elector's Document in order to vote in person - Just for in-person voting in specific elections - Proxy voters need to take their own ID when voting on someone else's behalf - Postal voting doesn't need ID to cast a ballot
Background Core facts relevant to the question — use as a reference guide for annotators.	Provides list of elections or examples in which voter ID is needed Introduced in GB in 2023, though passed into law in 2022. NI voters have needed ID since 1985 and photo ID since 2003